Sonidos Iniciales/Initial Sounds

Poco a poco/little by little we are advancing towards reading. Please do not forget to read at home in English! The research says the better their first language skills directly correspond to their second language acquisition.

Matemáticas/Mathematics

Today we began practicing more of parts of simple addition by using the symbol (+) which we say as más in Spanish. This weekend practice some of that with your student, they could even practice writing the symbol and finding small numbers of objects to place on either side to add/suma. I am also hoping to get the math homework done for next week for you can reinforce the concepts of class at home. Just like the sonidos practice, they would need to be completed in a month.

Cuento/Story

We began a story on Tuesday, El dia de los presidents/President's Day that I hope we can finish up tomorrow.

Escribir/Writing

Today we practiced writing "h" for hoja/leaf in class. We've almost finished the lower case letters/letras minúsculas

Thanks for all of the great conferences. I know that each student was very proud to show you the artifacts and talk about their progress this year!
